

Air Force Space Command Innovation Summit, Space and Cyberspace
Superiority 2030 – Phase One Government Partner Info
23-24 August 2016

(Information is current as of 8 Aug 2016)

Thank you for your interest in Phase One of the Innovation Summit! As the Chief Scientist for Air Force Space Command, the interaction with you on future science and technology challenges is critical for advancing space and cyberspace superiority. It is imperative that academia, research organizations, and industry understand the Command’s intent looking far ahead in order to make superiority in these domains a reality. I look forward to reviewing the briefings with you!

Dr. Merri Sanchez
